Thank you!

I am an interior designer based in Dakar, Sénégal, with a passion for promoting Senegalese craftsmanship and sustainable design. My work focuses on creating beautiful spaces that reflect the rich cultural heritage of Senegal while embracing environmentally friendly practices. One of my favorite ways to showcase this philosophy is through my handmade textile and home decor. Each piece is thoughtfully designed and crafted by local artisans, highlighting the unique skills and traditions of our community. I believe that every home should tell a story, and our work do just that—bringing a touch of Senegalese artistry into every space.
